Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: Examiner indicated that concern was in utilizing Ru at the second AP coupling peak, which the Examiner would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art since Ru has the strongest Jexc value of the various AP coupling materials and strong coupling would be reasonably expected even at the 2nd peak in Ru. Applicants indicated that the second peak in Ru occurs below 15 Angstroms and directed the Examiner to the non-patent literature reference denoting the second AP coupling peak of Ru at ~ 8 Angstroms. As such, the Examiner deems that incorporating the thickness limitation of claim 2 into claim 1 would appear to be sufficient to distinguish over the prior art of record. Applicants agreed to the proposed amendment..
